HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed, and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

We will not disclose your information to others unless you tell us to do so, or unless the law authorizes or requires us to do so. The law protects the privacy of the health information we obtain from you and store in your file. Specific health information that is stored includes session data, progress notes, behavior plans, claim reports from billing submissions, and personal information.

Federal and state law allows us to use and disclose your protected health information for purposes of treatment and health care operations. State law requires us to get your authorization to disclose this information for payment purposes.

Examples of Use and Disclosures of Protected Health Information for Treatment, Payment, and Protection from Harm

For treatment:

- Information obtained will be recorded and kept in your file and used to help determine the appropriate treatment options.
- We may also provide information to others (if given permission to release information)

For Insurance Reimbursement:

- When requesting information from your health insurance plan we are asked for information including diagnoses, procedures performed, address, phone number, identification number/social security number, date of birth, and dates of service.
- For billing and payment purposes we may disclose information to insurance or a managed care company, Medicaid, private insurance, or another third-party payer. These uses and disclosures are necessary to manage the agency and our quality of care.

To Protect the Client or Others from Harm:

- If we have reason to suspect that a minor, elderly, or disabled person is suffering from abuse, Bridges Behavior Therapy and Consulting, LLC is required to report this to the appropriate state agency. If there is any indication that a client is threatening serious harm to him/herself or others, we are required to take protective actions which may include notifying the police (others who may provide protection), intended victim, child's parents, or hospitalization.

Your Health Information Rights

The health and billing records we create and store are the property of Bridges Behavior Therapy and Consulting, LLC. However, the Protected Health Information belongs to you and you have a right to:

- Receive, read, and ask questions about this Notice;
- Ask us to restrict certain uses and disclosures. You must deliver this request in writing to us and we will try to comply with any request made;
- Request and receive from us a paper copy of the most current Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information.
- Request that you be allowed to see and get a copy of your protected health information. You may make this request in writing and mail it to 112 Titan Drive Florence, AL 35630
- Ask us to change your health information or ask that your health information be given to you by another means or at another location. Please sign, date, and give us your request in writing.

Our responsibility regarding you/your child's protected health information:

- Keep your protected health information private.
- Give you this Notice.
- Follow the terms of this Notice.
- Notify you if we are unable to agree to a requested restriction
- Accommodate reasonable requests you may have to communicate health information by alternative means or at alternative locations.

We reserve the right to make changes to this notice whenever there is a material change to the uses or disclosures, your individual rights, our legal duties, or other privacy practices stated in this Notice. Any changes made will affect the protected health information we maintain at that time. We will provide a revised copy of the notice to parents/legal guardians upon request on or after the effective date of revision.

To Ask for Help or to Register a Complaint:

If you have questions, want more information, or want to report a problem about the handling of your protected health information, you may call us at (256) 275-7089.

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may discuss your concerns with any staff member. You may also mail a written complaint to 112 Titan Drive Florence, AL 35630 or file a complaint with the U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services. We respect your right to file a complaint with us or with the U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services. If you complain, we will take your complaint as constructive criticism and will not retaliate against you.

We may use and disclose your protected health information without your authorization as follows:

- For certain purposes involving workplace illnesses or injuries.
- For Public Health and Safety Purposes as Allowed or Required by Law.
- To prevent or reduce a serious, immediate threat to the health or safety of a person or the public.
- To public health or legal authorities.
- To protect public health and safety.
- To prevent or control disease, injury, or disability.
- To report vital statistics such as births or deaths.
- To Report Suspected Abuse or Neglect to public authorities.
- To Correctional Institutions if you are in jail or prison, as necessary for your health and the health and safety of others.
- For Law Enforcement Purposes such as when we receive a subpoena, court order, or other legal process, or you are the victim of a crime.
- For Health and Safety Oversight Activities. For example, we may share health information with the Department of Health.
- For Disaster Relief Purposes. For example, we may share health information with disaster relief agencies to assist in notification of your condition to family or others.
- For Work-Related Conditions That Could Affect Employee Health. For example, an employer may ask us to assess health risks on a job site.
- To the Military Authorities of U.S. and Foreign Military Personnel. For example, the law may require us to provide information necessary to a military mission.
- In the Course of Judicial/Administrative Proceedings at your request, or as directed by a subpoena or court order.
- For Specialized Government Functions. For example, we may share information for national security purposes.

Other Uses and Disclosures of Protected Health Information

- Uses and disclosures not in this Notice will be made only as allowed or required by law or with your written authorization.

Acknowledgement of Receipt of HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices

We keep a record of the health care services we provide you. You may ask to see a copy of that record. You may also ask to correct that record. We will not disclose your record to others unless you direct us to do so or unless the law authorizes or compels us to do so.

Our Notice of Privacy Practices describes in more detail how your health information may be used and disclosed, and how you can access your information.
